

GLOBAL TAX AGENT AND CONSULTING SERVICES RFI
RESPONSES TO POTENTIAL OFFERORS QUESTIONS

FEBRUARY 14, 2025

- 1) Does the Retirement System require us to provide a redline copy of the contract or would the Retirement System prefer us to provide a table of just exceptions to the terms in the contract?
- a. In other words, is there a particular format that the Retirement System requires us to provide when the Retirement System is reviewing exceptions to terms in the contract?

As part of the questionnaire review process, the Agency has requested copies of the Offeror's standard form of service contract and any other underlying agreements necessary to implement the proposed services. Notwithstanding this request, the Agency expects the Contractor to sign the System's form of contract attached hereto as Attachment 3. The Agency also expects the Contractor to sign the System's form of non-disclosure agreement attached as Exhibit C to the form of contract.

A redline copy of the contract found in Attachment 3 would be preferred.
