Maryland State Retirement and Pension System Calls for Nominations: Public Member, Investment Committee

BALTIMORE, MD (January 7, 2019) – The Board of Trustees of the Maryland State Retirement and Pension System is calling for nominations for a public member to serve as an unpaid advisor to the retirement system’s Investment Committee for a three-year term beginning July 1, 2019. The term of the incumbent public member is due to expire on June 30, 2019. The committee meets four times each year on the third Tuesdays of February, May, September and November, in the System’s offices in Baltimore.

State law requires that three non-board members who have the following investment experience and other qualifications serve as advisors to the Retirement System’s Investment Committee:

- nominee is not a member, retiree, or beneficiary under any of the several State retirements systems;
- nominee has had experience in the management and control of large investments; and
- nominee has at least 10 years of substantial experience as any one or a combination of the following:
 1. A portfolio manager acting in a fiduciary capacity;
 2. An employee or principal of a trust institution, investment organization, or endowment fund acting either in a management-related or an investment-related capacity;
 3. A chartered financial analyst in good standing; or
 4. A professional engaged in a public or private financial or investment field that is comparable to the fields listed in this item.

Nominations should be submitted in writing to the attention of R. Dean Kenderdine, Executive Director, Maryland State Retirement Agency, 120 East Baltimore Street, Baltimore, MD 21202 or by e-mail at dkenderd@sra.state.md.us by Friday, March 1, 2019.

The Maryland State Retirement and Pension System is charged with the fiduciary responsibility for properly administering the retirement and pension allowances of more than 160,000 retirees and beneficiaries as well as the future benefits for more than 244,000 active and former members. These groups include state government employees, teachers, law enforcement personnel, legislators, judges and local government employees and fire fighters whose employers have elected to participate in the system.
